

TRUST

We can
Have trust
Towards others
Also in those
Who have emotional
Relationships
With us
Trust
Just one word
That is worth
As much as an Encyclopaedia
It means all
That composes us
And that in particular
Situations
We need
Help
To reach
To have Something
Very important
But if we do not have
Trust
Towards whom we are calling upon
We cannot find it
Somewhere else
It is not found
Everywhere
A person
That gives us
Complete
Trust
To whom entrust
It may be
Our life
Our future
If we do not have

Trust
Also in the people
Who are close to Us
And we are betrayed
In our
Trust
Towards them
We cannot
In the most absolute
Way
Have trust in others
One can with no doubt
Define
The trust
That we have
Towards who is close to us
Like the
FAITH
That composes us
If we firmly
Believe
In our Personality
And in all
That can
Visible and not visible
In what
Composes us
Outside
Our matter
In our Spirituality
We need to believe in it
Not pretend
To believe
Or show off
Our belief

If we do not have
Trust
In ourselves
How can we Demand
Of others
To have it
Towards us
And themselves
Even in those
That can
Emotional relationships
In living
In a certain
Way
In the best way
It is always Essential
To have trust
And especially
Give trust
To represent
A person
Who has Personality
And that we can
In our
Rectitude
Having trust
Means
Giving trust
To have
From the others
And often
From those
Who are very close
To us
The same Trust

That we give to them
Only in this way
We can say
To be trustful of our neighbour
